What a busy month, not just in golfing terms but also on having to decide what gear to wear—waterproof clothing one day or shorts and sun cream the next!! June 2019

Annual Pork Pie Open a Roaring Success

On Sunday 9th June, Melton Mowbray Golf Club hosted the 24th Annual Pork Pie Open, which is generously sponsored by Dickinson and Morris. Over 200 players took part in the pairs better ball Stableford competition on a course that had been prepared superbly by the Greens' Staff, both throughout the week before and very early in the morning before the first tee off at 7.26am.

Captain's Away Day at Ladbroke Park—the one with the rain.....

On Friday 7th June, 36 golfers from Melton Mowbray Golf Club travelled to Ladbroke Park to play in Gerry Stephen's Captain's Away Day. Despite the weather, everyone had a great time and the winning four-ball was Mick Jordan, Mick Curtis, Club Professional Tony Westwood and John Rigby with an overall score of 92 points.

Mick J, Mick C, Tony and John

Wet! Wet! Wet! for the Jack Wildman Trophy

Twelve pairs from the Seniors' and Ladies' sections battled through tough conditions to contest the Jack Wildman Trophy. Bedraggled winners on the day were Club Captain Gerry Stephens and Margaret Hoskins with a superb 40 pts. In 2nd place were David Bentley and Anne Creed with 38pts.
