Christmas Cheer for Pro's Team

Tony, Haydn, Club Captain Gerry, Ian and Alan

MMGC's annual fun Christmas competition of three clubs and a putter fourball Texas Scramble was played by a large field of 16 teams on Sunday 22nd December and each team member had three drives, a throw and a mulligan.

Despite the previous inclement weather, there was some excellent scores returned over the 14 hole competition. There were prizes for all the teams, but the one prize to avoid was the Paxo stuffing and Brussel sprouts for last place.

The winning team was Club Pro Tony Westwood, Ian Solloway, Haydn Snow and Alan Parkes with an excellent score of 41. The lucky winners of the stuffing and sprouts were the team of Phil Millward, Alan Newton, Alec Renwick and Andy Westwood with a score of 50. The post competition sausage rolls and mince pies were kindly donated by Tesco of Melton.

Honours All Round for Senior Prizewinners

On Monday 4th November, 48 people enjoyed a two course meal and the chance to take part in the Senior Presentation evening at MMGC. The honours were shared out between eleven different players, although some had managed a doubly successful outing, winning twice in the season. After the trophies had been duly handed out, the beautiful flower arrangements created by 'Drina Terzza were auctioned off, raising over £130 for the Captains' Charity, East Midlands Immediate Care Scheme (EMICS). A full list of prize-winners can be found on the website in the news section.

Animals rule in MMGC Ladies' fun Christmas competition

Maureen, Lady Captain Nancy, Dee & Liz

On Sunday 8th December, 18 Ladies gathered to play in the 9 hole Christmas fun competition. Teams of 3 set off and there were team and individual prizes to be played for.

The team game was a Stableford format with an additional bonus point gained for chipping in or one putt, which proved a popular way of gaining extra points.

In addition, each team had a pack of 5 animal cards that they had to try not to accumulate - the snake for a 3 putt, the bear for an out of bounds, the monkey for hitting a tree, the frog for finding the pond and the camel for visiting a bunker. Team winners with a superb score of 44 were Dee Hughes, Liz Snow and Maureen McCall.

The six booby prize-winners for collecting the most animal cards in their team were Julia Brown, Jean Moulds, Jackie Fisher, Dee Hughes, Avis Webb and Joan Allen. However, they were delighted to receive a gold chocolate coin from the Tower of London as punishment for a less than perfect round.
